

Call for Application

James Hoeschele AsBIC Award

The "James Hoeschele AsBIC Award" was established with generous support from Prof. James Hoeschele (Eastern Michigan University), the co-inventor of carboplatin, to recognize outstanding scientific contributions in biological inorganic chemistry of scientists in their mid-careers in the Asia-Pacific region. The Award aims to encourage collaboration and strengthen cooperation within the Asia-Pacific biological inorganic chemistry community. The Award selection will be made by a review panel consisting of members of the AsBIC Steering Committee, representative of all areas, both scientific and geographic.

Award Details

Up to two awards will be presented every alternate year. The award recipients will be presented with a cash prize of US$500 and award certificate. The award recipients will be invited to receive their prizes and deliver their award lectures at the next AsBIC conference.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the award, the candidate must hold Society of Biological Inorganic Chemistry (SBIC) membership and awarded his/her PhD degree not more than 25 years before the start of the AsBIC conference. Career interruptions will be taken into consideration:

- carer's responsibility;
- disruption due to international relocation for post-doctoral studies or other research employment not exceeding 3 months per international relocation;
- illness;
- maternity or parental leave; and/or
- unemployment, or non-research employment.

Register at <http://www.sbichem.org> to become an SBIC Member.

Application Process

Application dossier to include the following:

- Letter of application addressed to Selection Committee describing the accomplishments of the candidate that meet the criterion of "outstanding research in biological inorganic chemistry"
- Curriculum Vitae including name, email, affiliation, current position, mailing address, SBIC membership number, ORCID, date of birth, date of PhD
- List of publications
- The five most influential publications by the candidate as the primary author that support the nomination/application
- Latest photograph
- A 300-word citation

Or submit completed dossier to Prof Wonwoo Nam (Chair, AsBIC Steering Committee) wwnam@ewha.ac.kr

Closing Date: 15 Jun 2022

Selection Process

- The Selection Committee will comprise standing members of the AsBIC Steering Committee. Nominators as well as those supplying supporting letters will not eligible as a members of the Selection Committee.
- Awards will only be made if the recipients attend the award presentation at the AsBIC conference.
- We are looking to reward and promote excellence considering the standards in the different sub-disciplines of biological inorganic chemistry.
- The Selection Committee reserves the right not to award.
- The decision of the panel is final and no appeal will be entertained.
- These guidelines may be subjected to change.